TRAINING WITH COLOURWORKS INTERNATIONAL

Colourworks International was the first Image Consultant Training Academy in South Africa. We have been presenting this certification successfully for over 30 years (Nationally and Internationally) Our students successes are proof of our success!

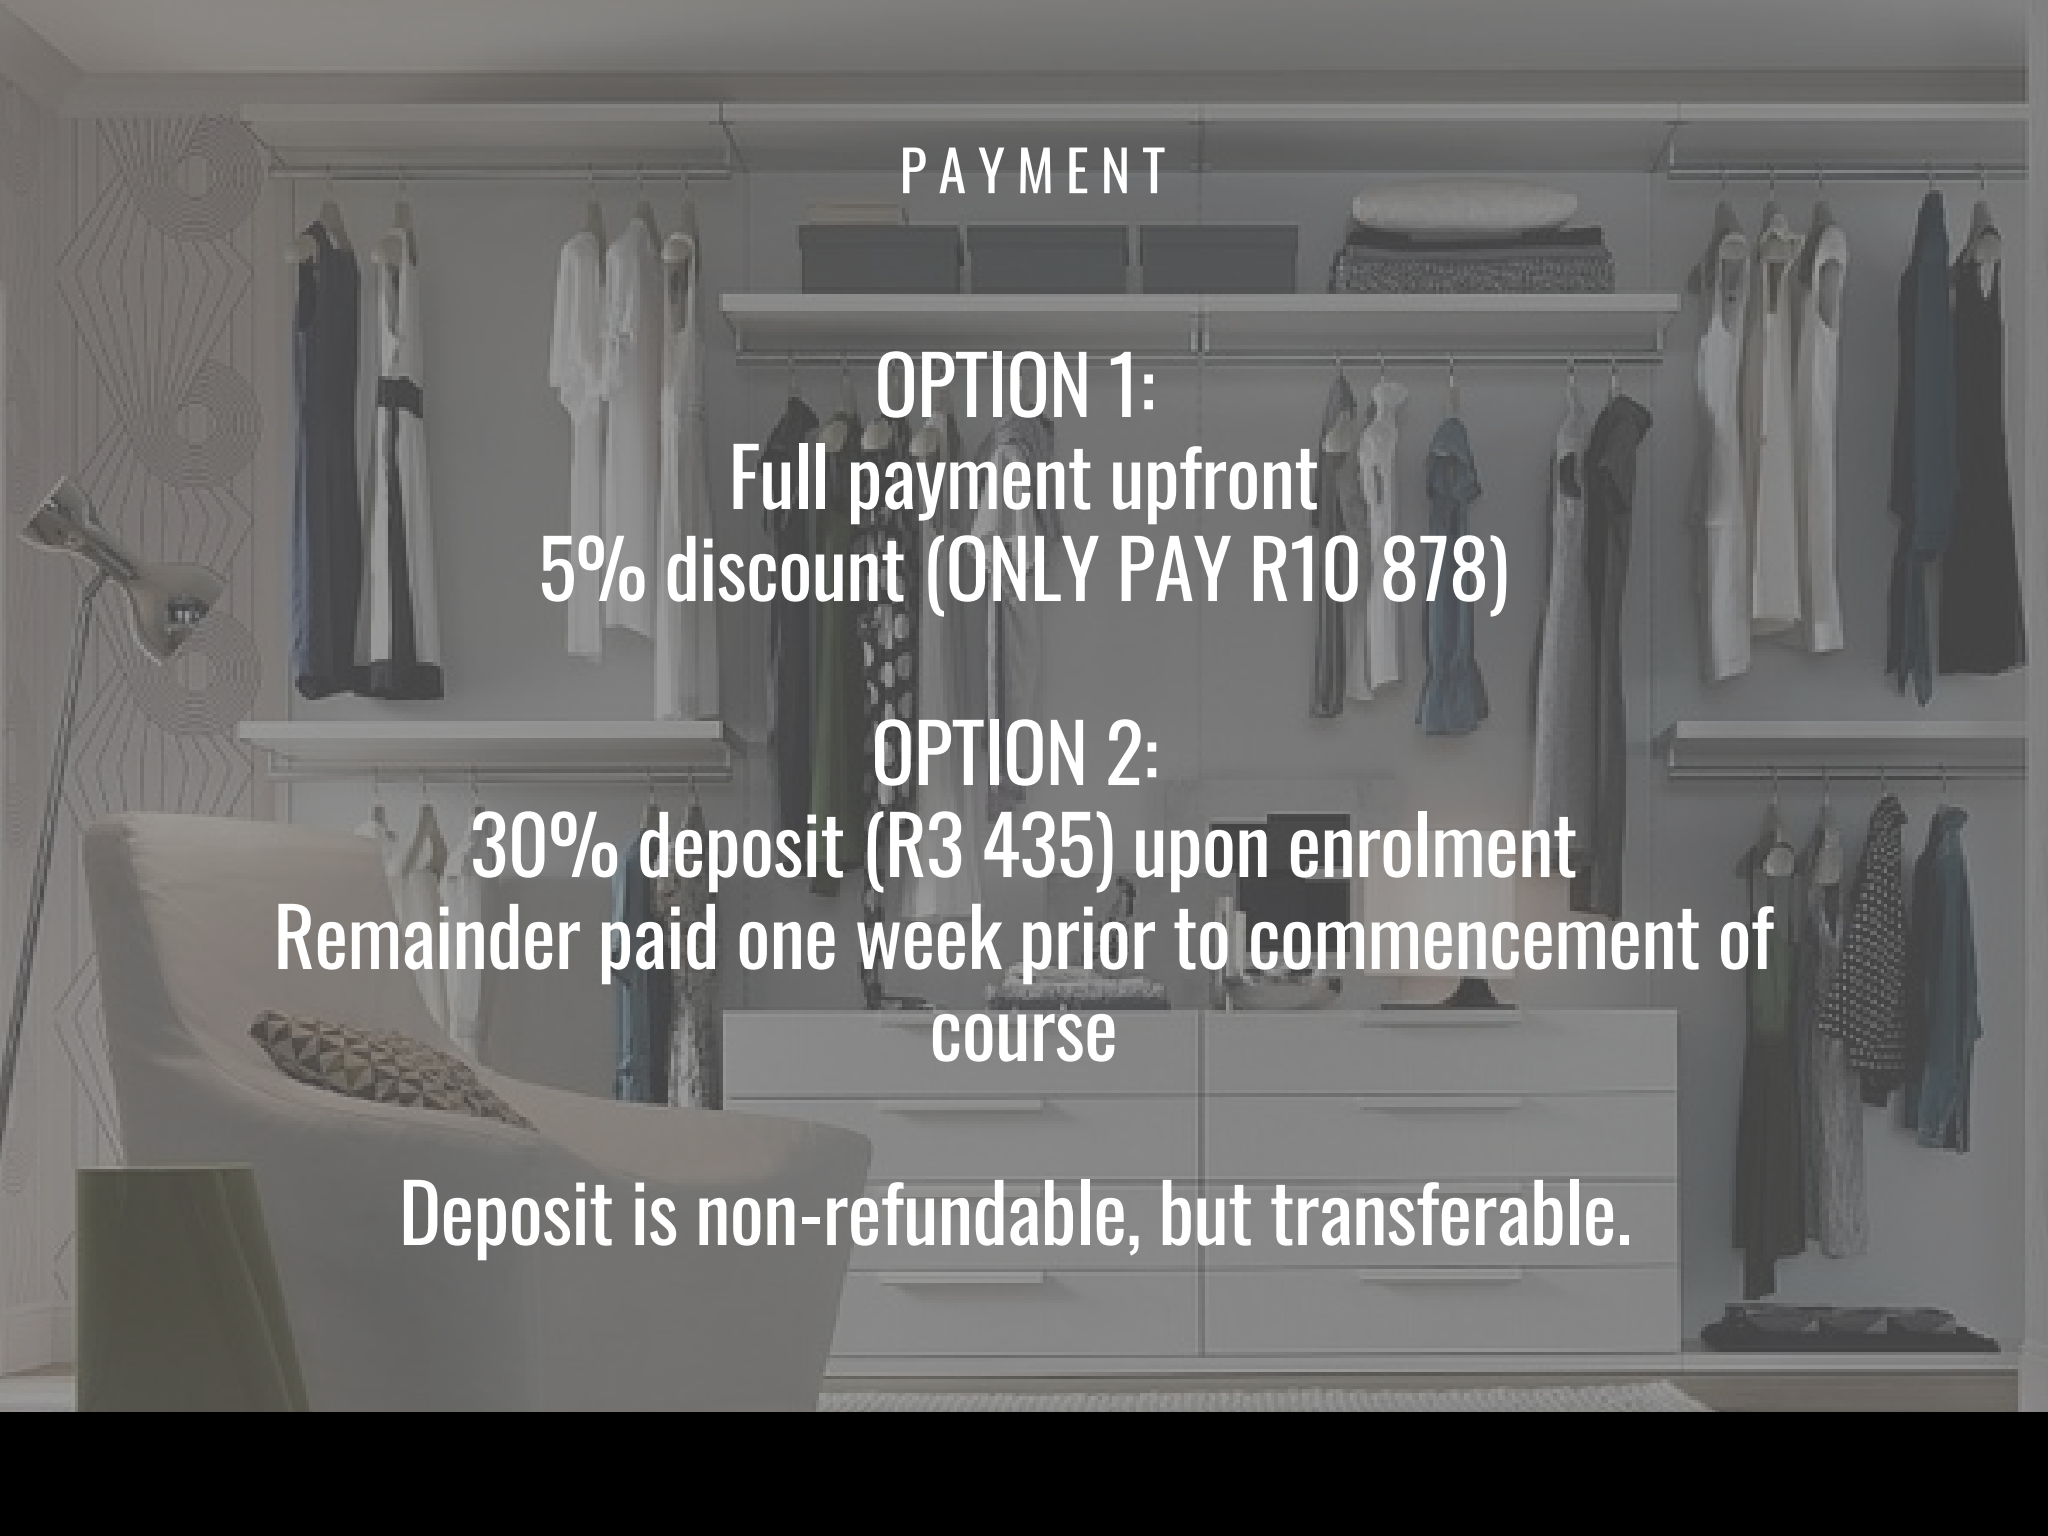

We are certified Master Image Consultants. We guarantee that you will only receive the industry best! We are also the only Academy that is certified by IBICA (International Beauty & Image Consultants Association)

Our classes are kept small for more individual attention and upon completion of the course our consultants will be equipped with everything they need to start their own business.

Our training and material is fully comprehensive and of the highest standards. We pride ourselves to be members of Unashamedly Ethical.

You will be required to do a post-training portfolio. This is our way to ensure only the highest standards of Image Consulting and it saves time and gives you more experience. Upon completion consultants will be able to practice as independent consultants using their own brand.

Within a year of being qualified, our consultant will be more than welcome to come sit in on our courses for a refresher for a minimal fee to cover venue cost only
